Johnson Asks First Voters To 'Go to the Polls Proudly'

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19 (AP) —President Johnson estimated today that nearly 10 million citizens would be eligible to cast their first vote in the election Nov. 3. He issued a proclamation today reminding them of "the solemn nature" of the obligation they are about to assume.

Mr. Johnson designated Oct. 25 through Oct. 31 as National First Voters Week, and urged a special effort during that period to assist the millions of new voters.

Welcoming this new group to its share in the franchise, Mr. Johnson said the first voters should do these things:
